

UNCONVENTIONAL SELF-PORTRAIT

OPEN MEDIA

Assignment Part 1: Create an UNCONVENTIONAL self-portrait using one (or any combination) of the following dry media:

- Coloured Pencil
- Conte
- Oil Pastel
- Chalk Pastel
- Aquarelle (dry-wet medium)
- **you may incorporate collage as well****

Procedure:

1. This project will take some planning...taking pictures or making photocopies may help you generate your ideas. Prepare preliminary sketches of your face in an unconventional expression / pose, etc. Be aware of facial expression as you draw. You may use a frontal or 3-quarter view.
2. Make corrections or modifications to your initial drawings until you are satisfied with the accuracy of the likeness.
3. Plan your final composition using thumbnail sketches. Consider frame-of-reference, and background material for your portrait.
4. Plan your colour scheme! Don't be afraid to add Variety to your work – You may want to consider using one particular colour scheme for the entire portrait.
5. Design and execute your final portrait using all of the portrait techniques and various media processes/techniques you have explored.
6. Mount, sign and date completed portrait.
7. Complete the self-evaluation.

...Review...

Three Theories of Art can be used to understand, think about, analyze and create art:

Formalism: Art in which the formal organization (using the Elements of Design and the Principles of Composition) is most important.

Imitationalism: Art in which the realistic presentation of the subject matter is most important.

Emotionalism: Art in which the vivid communication of mood, feelings and ideas is most important.

**Please note: The Self-Evaluation will serve as the THEORY (analysis) component of your project.
